

KEARSNEY COLLEGE
Founded in 1921

Kearsney College, a leading independent boys' high school located midway between Durban and Pietermaritzburg, requires the services of a dynamic candidate to join our academic staff from the start of 2021.

Head of Department – Geography

The incumbent will be suitably qualified and have experience in teaching Geography from Grade 8 to Grade 12. As Head of Department, it is essential to have experience and knowledge in all the assessment requirements for the IEB National Senior Certificate. Excellent administration skills are crucial, the applicant must be aware of trends, current syllabus reforms and the latest teaching methods and assessment practices applicable to the effective running of the Department.

Performance dimensions critical to this position will include innovation, maintaining excellence within the Geography Department as well as building positive relationships with students and peers.

Successful use of technology in the classroom will be a distinct advantage

All Kearsney academic staff are provided with accommodation on the picturesque estate on Botha's Hill or are paid a living-out allowance. If you have energy, enthusiasm and a passion for the teaching of Geography, we would be interested in receiving your application.

Please view the video on our website under the tab: "About us/Vacancies".

Candidates must be prepared to be involved in our extensive extra-mural programme and to perform supervisory duties in the boarding establishment.
