

Privacy Policy

Kearsney College is committed to ensuring that your privacy is protected. This policy explains how we use the information we collect about you and the procedures that we have in place to safeguard your privacy. This privacy policy covers your use of this website.

The information we collect from you on our website and how we use it when you apply to make an enquiry or purchase from the Kearsney College Foundation or Kit & Clothing shop, we need to know your name, e-mail address and telephone numbers. We may also ask you to give us optional contact information in some instances. We do not pass on your personal data to third party companies. We may use your information for the purpose of providing you with information about any special events or procedures which we think may be of interest to you or for related marketing purposes. We monitor customer traffic on an aggregate basis to help us develop and improve our website.

By submitting your information, you consent to the use of that information as set out in this Policy. If we change our Privacy Policy, we will post the changes on this website so that you may be aware of them. Because the internet infrastructure is global, and it is not possible to predict the routes that information sent over the internet will take, the information you provide may be transferred temporarily via a route, which takes it outside the African Economic Area as it passes between you and us. By submitting your information, you consent to this transfer.

Opt In / Opt Out

If at any time you wish to receive information about any other product areas which you currently do not receive, or you wish to stop receiving some or all of the information that we currently send, you may amend or remove your preferences by emailing communications@kearsney.com.

Cookies

What are cookies?

Cookies are simple text files that are stored on your computer or mobile device by a website's server. Each cookie is unique to your web browser. It will contain some anonymous information such as a unique identifier, website's domain name, and some digits and numbers.

What types of cookies do we use?

Analytical cookies

These cookies enable us and third-party services to collect aggregated data for statistical purposes on how our visitors use the website. These cookies do not contain personal information such as names and email addresses and are used to help us improve your user experience of the website.

How to delete cookies?

If you want to restrict or block the cookies that are set by our website, you can do so through your browser setting. Alternatively, you can visit www.internetcookies.org, which contains comprehensive information on how to do this on a wide variety of browsers and devices. You will find general information about cookies and details on how to delete cookies from your device.

Security of Information

We follow strict security procedures in the storage and disclosure of information which you have given us. This is to prevent unauthorised access or unlawful processing of your personal information. We keep your information confidential and store it on a secure server which is password protected and hidden behind a firewall from the outside world. We use secure socket layer software (SSL) to encrypt all of your personal information. Kearsney College's internal procedures cover the storage, access and disclosure of your information. Unless we have your express consent, we will only disclose your personal data to third parties if this is required for the purpose of completing your transaction with us. We use your information only as set out in this Policy and will not sell, rent or pass your information on to others for marketing purposes without your express consent. Kearsney College may however provide aggregate statistics about visitors to our website and related site information to reputable third-party vendors and relevant affiliate partners, but these statistics will not include personally identifying information.

Your Consent

By submitting your information and using our website, you consent to the collection, storage and processing of your personal information by us in the manner set out in this Policy. If we change our Privacy Policy we will post the changes on this website so that you are always aware of what information we collect, how we use it and under what circumstances we disclose it.

Disclaimer

The nature of internet communications means that your communications may be susceptible to data corruption, interception and delays. Kearsney College shall not be responsible for any detrimental reliance you place on this website or its contents.
