HEADMASTER | KEARSNEY COLLEGE

Kearsney College is delighted to welcome top rugby playing schools from around the country to its beautiful campus on Botha's Hill. With the teams come support staff, relatives, friends and supporters of schoolboy rugby. What an awesome opportunity to enjoy the Easter weekend in the company of rugby players and supporters, in an environment and climate that complements the experience.

The Kearsney Easter Rugby Festival has been made possible by the magnificent support provided by all our sponsors. Africa's biggest bank, Standard Bank has continued as the Festival's title sponsor this year. Standard Bank has also been Kearsney's chosen bank for well over two decades and we are delighted to continue the relationship. The Sharks have supported this festival from inception in 2008 and we are proud to be associated with this winning brand. Halfway Ford and Hendok continue to support as major sponsors, with MTN and Coopertires as new first tier sponsors. In addition, MTN will be providing free WIFI for the entire duration of the festival. There are also a number of product sponsors for the festival. Please support our sponsors as they not only offer high quality products and services but they are also prepared to invest in supporting sport at school level.

Key to the success of a festival of this nature is the attention given to the participating teams. We endeavour to provide comfortable, spacious on-site accommodation to all the teams and management at no cost to the teams. Taking care of the dietary needs is Compass Group SA representing a global catering company operating in clean, modern on-site dining and kitchen facilities. Medical partners - Busamed, Netcare 911, Marsh and Sharks Medical - provide match day care, including post-match rehabilitation, which is on hand to cater for any eventuality.

Home comforts are provided to all players and management in the form of sponsors' products and keep-sakes. As a reward to the coaching staff for their commitment to schoolboy rugby we ensure that the odd celebratory libations are provided too.

Kearsney teacher Mouton Badenhorst is the chairman of the Standard Bank Kearsney Easter Rugby Festival committee which includes many Kearsney staff, KZN Rugby Union officials and others who have worked tirelessly to produce a festival of which we can all be proud. The Kearsney Easter Rugby Festival committee is comprised exclusively of volunteer staff.

We thank the schoolboy rugby supporters of KwaZulu-Natal and the rest of South Africa for their support of the festival.

CEO PERSONAL & BUSINESS BANKING
IN SOUTH AFRICA | STANDARD BANK

South Africans have two significant passions: education and sport. Combine the two and you have some of South Africa's leading schools competing against each other, and it is guaranteed that families and sports lovers will pour through the gates to enjoy the day.

This devotion to education and sport, and the acknowledgement that sport unifies people across economic and social divides, is what drives Standard Bank to invest in school sport and the development of education - a drive to which we devote millions of rand each year. We believe that while sport promotes the building of relationships both on and off the field, it is education that transforms lives and communities.

Most important is assisting people who come from the 'missing middle' and struggle to access training and tertiary education after completing matric. By encouraging people with financial means to assist those who need to pay outstanding fees, and those looking for support to study, has led the bank to support the Feenix crowd-funding initiative.

R19-million was donated to the platform during 2018, from 100 businesses and 917 individual funders.

Perhaps the epitome of rugby achievement in this country was the unforgettable moment in 1995 when Francois Pienaar and Nelson Mandela hoisted the World Cup aloft and brought a jubilant nation to its feet. It is in this tradition that we encourage all players to approach South Africa's favourite sport.

By taking part in this premier event, players have reached the pinnacle in school rugby. It is how they worked as a team, how they accepted victory and defeat, and the respect with which they treat their opponents that will be remembered.

At Standard Bank, we are dedicated to creating ongoing partnerships and helping people negotiate life's milestones by assisting them to prepare for their futures. These partnerships become important for young customers as they step from supportive school surroundings to the tertiary environment where the emphasis is on personal independence and commitment to studies.

Partnerships and relationships are central parts of Standard Bank being sure that our customers, regardless of age, are 'Good to Go'. The promise embodied in our new campaign is that our customers will always have the products and services available when they are needed. Regardless of whether it's a personal loan, foreign exchange for a long-awaited trip, a home loan or any other solution, we will make sure that they are 'Good to Go' with the financial assistance needed to help meet their dreams.

Our best wishes go to all the young sportsmen who are competing. Standard Bank urges you to give of your best for your team. Enjoy the matches, enjoy making new friends and enjoy participating.

GARY TEICHMANN
CEO | THE SHARKS

We at the Cell C Sharks are delighted about our ongoing association with the Standard Bank Kearsney Easter Rugby Festival. The strength, success and reputation of this prestigious festival is evident in the calibre of schools who participate in the tournament annually, and this year is no exception.

A stellar group of top rugby schools will be competing against each other in a tournament that attracts top coaches, talent scouts and fans from across the country. The involvement of our Sharks Academy means we, at the Cell C Sharks, keep a keen eye on the players participating at the tournament and their schools, knowing that rugby in the province stands to benefit significantly, both at present as well as in the future.

Annually, our scouts from The Sharks Academy are impressed with the high quality of rugby on offer, the skills displayed, the competitiveness shown, and the overall spirit of schoolboy rugby, which is a joy to watch.

Schoolboy rugby plays an invaluable role in the development of South Africa's rugby culture. The sport at school level is where the foundation is built for key values such as sportsmanship, team work, a strong work ethic, perseverance, respect and honour to be taught and embraced. These values resonate with our brand and are what we're about.

Best wishes to the organising committee, sponsors, participating schools, coaches, players and everyone else associated with this wonderful tournament. May the 2019 edition of the festival be another successful one.

MOUTON BADENHORST

DIRECTOR | 12TH STANDARD BANK
KEARSNEY EASTER RUGBY FESTIVAL

Rugby is so much more than just a game played between two teams. It teaches us about life and that, with the correct attitude and work ethic, it is truly possible to change lives.

As organisers of the Kearsney Easter Rugby Festival we're well aware that, with the privileges we enjoy as a school and a community, comes a responsibility to the wider community. Our Boots & Balls initiative, of collecting new and good condition second-hand rugby kit and clothing, makes it possible for those participating in the festival to make a difference to the lives of others and to grow the sport of rugby.

You're urged to please leave any new or good condition used kit in the bright yellow collection bins strategically positioned at the side of the field.

We're delighted how the project has impacted on the lives of many of KwaZulu-Natal's aspiring young rugby players. Together with the KZN Rugby Union's development office, we ensure all items collected are refurbished and then distributed to areas in need.

After the 2018 Kearsney Easter Rugby Festival, one of the recipients of kit collected was the Reservoir Hills Rhinos Rugby Club. After finishing bottom of their group the year before, the kit donated by the festival spurred on the players, who remained unbeaten for the entire 2018 season and were crowned Champions of the CF Flew 5th Division.

As organisers, we're proud of all those - from participating primary and high school players to festival supporters and members of the public - who have been involved in this project and supported the development of the province's future rugby stars.

WHERE TO SPOT TALENT

KEARSNEY EASTER RUGBY FESTIVAL

Since the inaugural Kearsney Easter Rugby Festival in 2008, many participating players have used the festival as a platform from which to secure a future in rugby, having gone on to play for club, provincial and international sides.

The festival also provides spectators with the opportunity to watch exciting young players, many of whom become household names within a few seasons; playing in Varsity Cup and U21 sides, provincial Super Rugby and Currie Cup teams, Springboks and SA Sevens. Previous festival players have since represented overseas sides such as Western Force (Australia), Ealing and Sale Sharks (England), Munster (Ireland), La Rochelle and Montpellier (both France); as well as the Barbarians, Scotland, British and Irish Lions, Germany and Western Australia Sevens.

Talent scouts converge on schoolboy festivals and, at the end of this year's Kearsney Easter Rugby Festival, three players will each receive a bursary to The Sharks Academy for 2020, accommodation and a tuition bursary with one of its education partners.

Whilst playing at this festival two years ago, Dale College speedster Aphelele Fassi's talent was spotted and he was awarded a bursary to the Academy. He is already shining at provincial level, after a successful start to the 2019 Super Rugby season with the Sharks.

In 2011 and 2012 Handre Pollard showed signs of the brilliance he's now known for, when he thrilled festival spectators playing at flyhalf for Paarl Gimnasium.

The following year Warrick Gelant played for Hoërskool Outeniqua, before joining the Blue Bulls when he left school and being selected for SA U20, SA Sevens and then the Springboks two years ago.

Western Province flyhalf David Coetzer, who played for Selborne College at the festival during the same years as Fassi, received a call up for the Junior Boks team last year. Other recent festival players - such as JJ van der Mescht and Conan le Fleur (Glenwood), Dylan Richardson and Sibusiso Sangweni (both Kearsney), Sibabalwe Xamlashe and Thomas Bursey (both Selborne College) - were selected for the U18 and U19 Junior Bok camps earlier this year.

A few other players who thrilled Kearsney Easter Rugby Festival spectators are Jan Serfontein (Grey College 2010/11), Fred Zeilinga (Glenwood 2010), Paul Jordaan (Grey College 2010), RG Snyman (Affies 2012), Robert du Preez (Kearsney 2011) and his twin brothers Daniel and Jean-Luc (both Kearsney 2011/12/13).

Etienne Fynn, managing director of The Sharks Academy, said for many players the festival was the culmination of years of training, aimed towards representing their 1st XV with pride and passion; whilst exposing them to a wider platform where talent scouts keenly watched each game.

HTS DROSTDY

In 1903 the Boere Zending School was established in the Boland when the Dutch Reformed Church bought the Drostdy building in Worcester, following a request from prisoners of war to be educated as missionaries. In 1911 the building became an industrial school called Drostdy School; and in 1925 changed to a trade school. Since 1945 it has been known as Drostdy Technical High School and today represents a proud boarding institution of excellence with about 980 learners, predominantly boys. It is currently the top rugby school in the Boland region. Old Boys include Sampie Mastriet (Bulls, Lions, Kings, Blitzbokke), Wilco Louw (Stormers, Springboks), Hanro Liebenberg (Bulls, Baby Boks), Wian Liebenberg (Baby Boks, Montpellier), WP Nel (Cheetahs, Edinburgh, Scotland) and Ruan Kitshoff (Griquas, WP, Namibia).

GLENWOOD HIGH SCHOOL

From humble beginnings with just 26 boys in 1910, Glenwood has grown to become a leading school in South Africa. Rugby was introduced from the start, but initially Glenwood struggled to be competitive against the more established KZN schools. After WWII the school began to win more regularly against its traditional rivals and, since 1950, Glenwood has had a winning record against many KZN schools. The school fields 30 rugby teams each weekend and has produced over 150 international sportsmen, including 7 rugby Springboks, nearly 50 Natal/Sharks players, 8 SA Schools' caps and over 170 KZN Schools' caps. In 2016 10 players were selected for the KZN Craven Week team; and in 2014 three players were chosen for SA Schools.

CLUB RUGBY REVIVAL

John Smit, the Springboks' 2007 Rugby World Cup winning captain, has thrown his weight behind the revival of club rugby in South Africa.

The Gold Cup, the country's flagship national rugby championship for non-university clubs, is known for attracting good crowds and flamboyant rugby each weekend during the season.

"The local rugby club is at the heart of many communities across the country and there is so much untapped potential for rugby and businesses to collaborate," said Smit. "I've experienced personally how rugby can be a powerful catalyst for nation-building, but it is arguable whether we really exploited the full potential of our World Cup victories in 1995 and 2007.

"Amateur club rugby is where rugby and communities are built from the ground up. The unsung heroes in these communities need to be given the opportunity to be celebrated and the Gold Cup is one of the ideal platforms to achieve this."

Bok captain John Smit during the celebrations after winning the Rugby World Cup in 2007

He said the Gold Cup's vision of building communities and providing opportunities was shared by a trio of dynamic sponsors for the 2019 season, including SSG Holdings, Blu Approved and M4Jam.

As CEO of SSG Holdings, Smit said the company was proud to be associated with the grassroots game and looked forward to seeing the tournament grow from strength to strength, thereby consolidating the pool of talent available to South African rugby.

HOËRSKOOL NOORD-KAAP

Founded in Kimberley in 1943, it has become one of the region's foremost co-ed schools in academics, culture and sport, with 1 000 pupils enrolled. A dual medium school, it has come a long way since the mid 1980's when it could hardly muster a single competitive team. Today it has six of the strongest rugby teams in the province; with more than its share of provincial and national representatives. These include centres PJ Vermeulen, Jacques de Kock, Ronnie Cooke, Riaan Swanepoel and Andrew van Wyk. In 2004 PJ Vermeulen captained the SA u19 team which won the Rugby World Cup in Durban. Ronnie Cooke is arguably the school's most renowned Old Boy, having played for the SA u21 side, Cheetahs and in France.

PRETORIA BOYS HIGH

Pretoria Boys High, an English-medium boys school, is one of the great South African schools boasting outstanding grounds and buildings. In the 1880s the government of the Republic of South Africa built a Staatsmodelskool - the building was changed into a prison and at this time Sir Winston Churchill was imprisoned there. It was later renamed Pretoria Boys High School and became the first "Milner" school in the Transvaal. The school can field 30 rugby teams on any given day and has a proud tradition, believing in participation rather than exclusivity. Rugby has been played at the school for over 100 years - with some notable players including John Smit (Springbok captain), Robbie Brink, Brian Liebenberg and Chilliboy Ralepelle.

WELKOM-GIMNASIUM

Started in 1953 as an Afrikaans-medium school, and changing to dual-medium 22 years ago, Welkom-Gimnasium is the oldest academic school in Welkom. The school fields nine rugby teams each season, against some tough local competition such as Grey College, Monnas, HTS Middelburg, Noord-Kaap and Diamantveld. Welkom's recent victories include the prestigious Free State Directors' Trophy and the Kopsie league title. The school aims to provide players the opportunity to express themselves on the field, whilst promoting running and entertaining rugby, sportsmanship, discipline and good moral values. Springboks include Gerrie Sonnekus, Christo Ferreira and Lukas van Biljon; with brothers Jandrè and Peet Marais playing for the Junior Springboks. Jandrè is currently captain of Bordeaux, while younger brothers Peet and Retief play for Brive in France.

RUGBY WORLD CUP

There are several 'firsts' associated with this year's ninth Rugby World Cup. Taking place in Japan, this is the first time it has ever been held in Asia, the first time consecutively in the same hemisphere and the first time the event has been played outside the traditional heartland of the sport.

The tournament's games will be spread between 14 different venues across Japan, with the opening game kicking off on Friday 20th September at Tokyo's Ajinomoto Stadium when the host team meets qualifier Russia. The final game of the event will be played at the International Stadium in Yokohama on Saturday 2nd November.

Hosts Japan are in Pool A; defending champions New Zealand with South Africa in Pool B; England with France and Argentina in Pool C; and Australia with Wales and Georgia in Pool D.

The pool draw saw balls randomly pulled, beginning with Japanese Prime Minister Shinzō Abe drawing the pool to which the hosts were allocated. It continued with Japanese Olympian Saori Yoshida, former Japanese rugby international Yoshihiro Sakata, All Blacks head coach Steve Hansen, mayor of Yokohama Fumiko Hayashi and finally World Rugby chairman Bill Beaumont.

In South Africa's pool B is New Zealand, Italy, Namibia and Canada. Pool A has Ireland, Scotland, Japan, Russia and Samoa; Pool C England, France, Argentina, USA and Tonga; and Pool D has Australia, Wales, Georgia, Fiji and Uruguay.

The Springboks' first pool game will be the much-anticipated clash with defending world champions New Zealand on Saturday 21st September at the International Stadium in Yokohama; followed by Namibia at Toyota Stadium, Aichi on Saturday 28th September; Italy on Friday 4th October at Shizuoka Stadium in Ecopa and the last pool game against Canada on Tuesday 8th October in Kobe's Misaki Stadium.

The winner of SA's Pool B will play the runner-up of Pool A in Tokyo on Saturday 19th October in the second quarter-final; and in the fourth quarter final, the runner-up of Pool B will play the winner of Pool A the following day in Tokyo.

The semi-finals will be played in Yokohama on Saturday 26th and Sunday 27th, with the third-place play-off in Tokyo on Friday 1st November and the finals on Saturday 2nd back in Yokohama.

With the Springboks and All Blacks in the same pool, they cannot meet again until the final. Should they both make it through, it would be the 100th clash between old foes – and their first World Cup final meeting since 1995 when South Africa lifted the trophy at Ellis Park.

Supersport has confirmed all 48 World Cup matches will be shown live in South Africa. Tokyo is seven hours ahead of South Africa.

THE BRAVE BLOSSOMS

Once the preserve of just a handful of traditional nations, rugby is now quickly becoming a truly global game. The rapid recent improvement of the Japan rugby team is a prime example.

Once the preserve of just a handful of traditional nations, rugby is now quickly becoming a truly global game. The rapid recent improvement of the Japan rugby team is a prime example.

Whilst Rugby Union there is a moderately popular sport, the country has the fourth largest population of Rugby Union players in the world, with the game having been played in Japan for over a century.

Japan has played in every Rugby World Cup since the inaugural tournament in 1987; and, at the start of this year's event, will have played a total of 28 Rugby World Cup games, of which they have won just four. Three of those four victories were during the 2015 World Cup where the Brave Blossoms were hailed a revelation.

Eddie Jones, currently head coach of England's national team, was appointed as head coach of the Japan national Rugby Union team in 2012, to lead them to the 2015 Rugby World Cup. His first move as coach was to reduce the number of foreigners and to encourage the Japanese to play their own style, saying his goal was to bring Japan up a level, to be among the top ten.

Wins over the United States and Samoa at the 2015 tournament were reason enough for Japanese rugby players and supporters to celebrate, but it was their shock 34-32 defeat of the Springboks which made the world take notice. These victories were not enough, however, to see them qualify from the pool stages.

In 2016, Japan's Sunwolves were awarded a place in the annual Super Rugby competition for the first time.

Whilst not officially linked to the Japanese national team, the bulk of players included in the Sunwolves squad are also members of the national team.

Japan has named three South African-born players in their training squad for the 2019 Rugby World Cup. Wimpie van der Walt, who already has nine Test caps for Japan, is again included, with former Bulls duo Lappies Labuschagne and Grant Hattingh having been named as the uncapped South Africans in the squad.

Interestingly, the organisers of this year's event have made the controversial decision to ban all players and supporters from displaying tattoos, long connected with the Yakuza, Japan's fierce local mafia. All teams have been instructed that tattoos must be covered by wearing rash vests in public; with tournament director Alan Gilpin saying the rule will not be enforced or punishable should it be flouted, but is encouraged as a mark of respect for Japanese tradition.
